

History

Charters Towers Central State School has been operating for 136 years. We were one of the founding schools in the area and originally were seperated into a boys' school and girls' school.