Promoting Kindness at Central

We all know that Central is already an amazing school and to make it even better the staff are promoting kindness across all grade levels. To kick things off we have introduced a week long "Kindness Challenge" in which students have been asked to complete nine random acts of kindness. Students that successfully complete this challenge will be celebrated during this week's parade. We have also had many discussions during class regarding kindness and we have been encouraging kind social interactions between students.

How can parents/guardians help the staff promote kindness?

This is simple, by showing your child/children through your own acts of kindness and social interactions with others. Greeting shopkeepers down town, letting people with less groceries go in front of you at the grocery store, using positive language when conversing at home, giving compliments/encouragement to loved ones, helping when someone is injured, smiling when someone passes you by, just to name a few. When children see the people they love and respect demonstrating these kind behaviours, they too will behave/interact this way. Stay tuned for more kindness activities/events and remember, it's cool to be kind at Central and at home! – Miss Stewart

School Fete

The fete is quickly approaching – Saturday, 19th August. Any empty jars, unwanted books, grocery items and old shopping bags that parents and students are able to donate will be gratefully accepted at the office. Don't forget Free Dress on Wednesday with a gold coin donation for the fete!
