Principal's Messages

P&C Meeting

We will be having a P&C meeting on Wednesday 25th November at 2.30pm. There has not been a meeting this term as we were all a bit drained from the fete but we need to catch up and talk about the new school sport shirts and hats and the LIFE Education Van visit scheduled for early next year.

Tuck Shop This Week

Tuck shop will be open as per usual on Thursday.

Book Fair

The final day for book fair is this Wednesday. Please make sure that you have finalized all orders by then.

Free Vision Screening and Glasses

Thank you to everyone for getting those notes back so that almost all of our students could receive the free eye tests and free glasses, if they were required. The glasses will hopefully arrive at school during the last week of the term. If they are delayed for any reason and arrive on the holidays, Mr Barath will call parents so they can be collected from the school.

On behalf of the school community, I would like to thank OneSight for choosing to come to our school and provide a spectacular service at no cost. The way they assessed all of these children in one day was really quite amazing.

Welcome Back & Congratulations

Miss Smith has come back to Central after a two year absence while she was off teaching and having adventures in the United Kingdom. Miss Smith will be filling in for Mrs Bojack and Mr Moore while they take some much deserved long service leave at the end of this year. Miss Smith was also successful in applying for the position of Head of Special Education Services for Central which she will be taking up at the start of next year.
